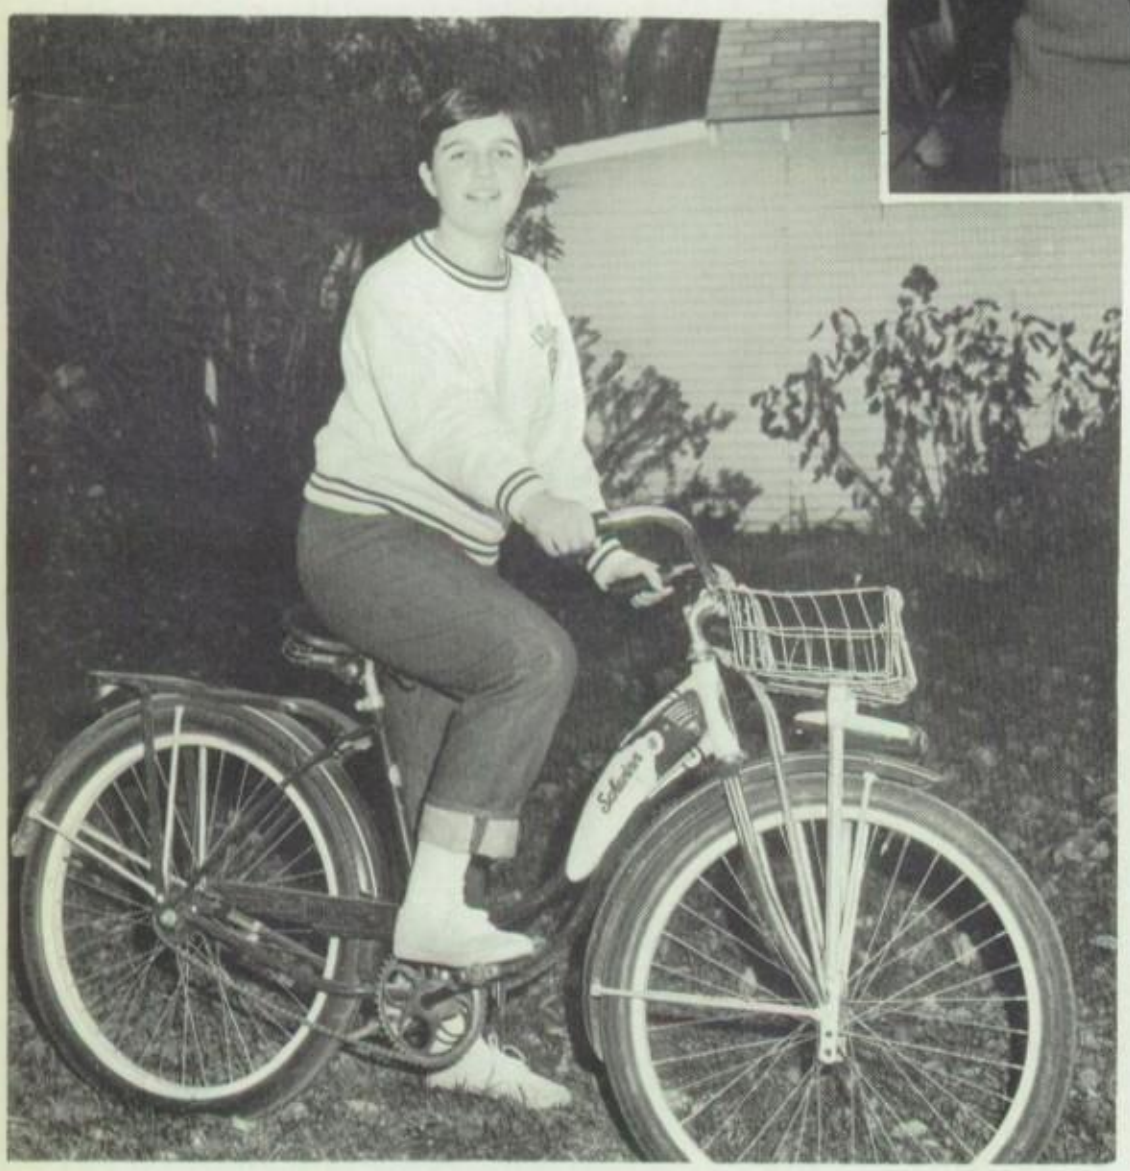
Paris' Nicky Masson-
Goodwill Ambassador

An avid football spectator, Nicky attended all of Perry's scheduled football encounters. She boards a booster bus bound for Algona with cheerleaders Babs Bower and Judy Spauldin.

Nicky, who resided with Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Wildberger and daughter Susie, listens as Susie familiarizes her with an American song.



When the weather permits, Nicky bicycles almost daily. Here she prepares for an excursion around the block.

Busy Nicky, who is flashing her ever-present smile, pauses for a moment of relaxation in the midst of her home-work.

Council Encourages Support, Sponsors Foreign Exchange

Taking charge of the fund-raising for the next year's foreign exchange student were Twylla Hyland and Nicole Masson. Purchasing shares in the student for next year are Karla Kelly and Cheryl Chambers.

The 1962-63 Student Council Officers were left: Vice-President, Dick Mace; Secretary, Donna Bennett; and President, Dennis Brelsford.

PERRY	25	ST. EDMOND'S (Ft. Dodge)	6	PERRY	13	INDIANOLA	41
		PERRY	20	NEVADA	12

With seven returning lettermen on the squad, the Perry Bluejays chalked up a 4-4-1 record. The gridders won over Jefferson, St. Edmond's (Ft. Dodge), Nevada, and Winterset. Tama-Toledo tied the Bluejays.

Aerial deliveries by Roger Macur, Terry Fox, and John Wagner accounted for 681 yards. The team racked up 1766 yards rushing.

Leading scorer and rusher was junior back Terry Fox who tallied 80 points and had a rushing average of 6.6 yards per carry. Leading passer was Roger Macur who completed 50 passes for 634 yards.

Closing against Nevada, nine boys completed their high school football careers. They were: Roger Macur, John Wagner, Dick Galiher, Larry Woods, Gary Yanders, Ron Beasley, Dennis Dorman, Jim Bridenstine, and Tom Ervin.

Perry matmen chalked up a 6-3 record. Audubon, Des Moines Roosevelt and Eagle Grove handed them setbacks. The Jays defeated Creston, Harlan, Colfax, Des Moines North, Clark Community and Bondurant-Farrar. As sectional champions, the team advanced three grapplers, Ellis, Gimpel and Alexander, to district competition. In the Audubon Invitational, the matmen placed fourth. Bill Ellis, a sophomore, made his second trip to the state meet at Waterloo.

Band Melodizes January Concert,

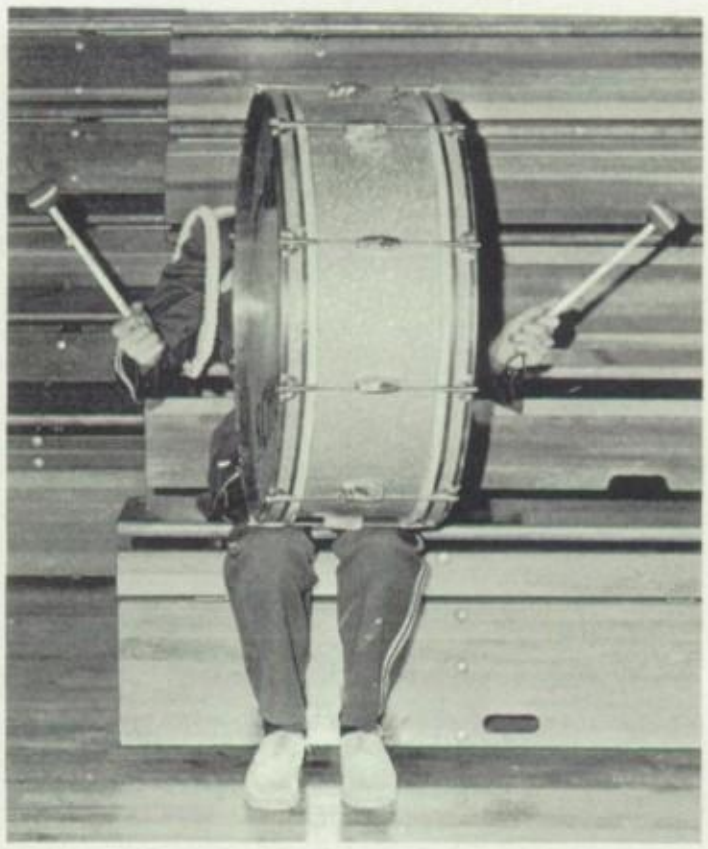
The Pops Concert in January and the 'Swingin Safari' in April highlighted the year for the concert band.

Officers helping plan the band's activities were: President, Roy Gimpel; Vice-President, Linda Stofer; Secretary, Nancy Hart; and Publicity Manager, Avis Paeth.

Taking their cue from Director David Evans, the band explored the various realms of music.

April "Swingin' Safari" For Public

The marching band schedule included Homecoming, football shows and the Memorial Day, Independence Day and Ridiculous Day parades.



Drum Major Doug Smalley leads the marching band on parade.

At right, drummer Stelva Ketcham appears to have 'lost his head' during a lively pep band number.

Receiving a I rating at small groups contest was the drum ensemble, Pam Smit, Danny Hutchins, Avis Paeth, and Stelva Ketcham. Danny also received I's on his snare drum and tympani solos.

Small Group Contest Climaxes Band Year

This was the first year the band participated in Class 'A' contest. Other winners included a clarinet quartet, a trumpet trio, and a trumpet quartet. Susie Robinson and Judy Heck received I's with their trumpet solos.

Vocalists Gain Top Honors

Directing choir activities, including the Spring Dance and Band and Choir Picnic, were Babs Bower, Vice-President; Tom Ervin, President; Carolyn Burnett, Secretary.

Receiving 'I' ratings were a mixed quartet composed of Doug Smalley, Betty Jean Smith, Marvin Lind and Janice Hall, and a duet comprised of Carolyn Burnett and Doug Smalley.

For the third consecutive year, a trio including Janice Hall, Nancy Hart and Phyllis Anthens earned top ratings.

In the solo division, Janice Hall and Doug Smalley gained top honors.

Chosen to participate in All-State Orchestra was Susie Robinson. Doug Smalley, Pat Dougan, Marvin Lind and Carolyn Burnett sang in the All-State Choir.

Members of the double mixed quartet which received a 'I' rating were Carolyn Mathis, Betty Jean Smith, Carolyn Burnett, Janice Hall, Doug Smalley, Steve Felton, Marvin Lind and David Byler.

ALTO SECTION

Arranging much of his own music and spending many hours of preparation, Director Alan Hall led the choir through a successful year.

Sylvia Garwood signs the official National Honor Society register.

Carol Marlow and Avis Paeth escort surprised John Wagner to the stage.

Y-Teens Instigate Projects

Above: At the annual Dad-Daughter Coffee, Y-Teens Lois Hurd and Cheryl Chambers serve punch to Glory Hansen and Kathy Worrell, as their fathers, Dr. Joe Worrell and Eugene Hansen, wait in line.

Right: Y-Teens Arlene Childers, Jean Wilson, Janet Cook and Margaret Hines prepare Easter Seals for Perry and surrounding towns.

Miss Helene Mosier, executive director for the Iowa Town and Country YWCA, speaks to Y-Teen members about her trip to South America.

Reading a Perry entry in the "Cornhopper, " Y-Teen publication, are officers Suzi Rausch, Vice-President; Donna Bennett, Secretary; and Jan Eshouse, President. New officers installed at the Mother-Daughter Tea were Suzi Rausch, President; Joy Salocker, Vice-President; Jane Rausch, Secretary.

junior class president Tom Goff welcomes everyone to the Junior-Senior Banquet.

"Milestones" was the speech given by Dick Sandal, shown in the first milestone-babyhood.

"Milestones", Class Will Provide Entertainment for Juniors, Seniors

Introductions were made by Doug Smalley, who acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Mike Haynes reveals all through the class will.

Entertainment at the Tahitian Banquet was provided by Betty Jean Smith, who sang "Where Did the School Year Go?"

Enjoying the music of Keith Killinger are Robbie Naylor, Terry Lester, Jacki Buchan and Dick Sharp.

First to arrive at the breakfast were Dick Galiher and Karen Susich. Following them were Tom Alexander and Babs Bower.

As the final event of the evening, students attended a breakfast at the Elks. A movie at the Perry Theater preceded the breakfast.

"Mardi Gras" Begins Perry's Evening of Fun for Prom-goers

Rick Fazel and Janice Jacobsen are shown entering the game room. Rick gave an original reading, and sophomore Pat Dougan sang for the entertainment at the dance.

King Neptune, portrayed by Dwain Lewiston, ruled over the dance. "Mardi Gras" was the theme for the event.

Enjoying the holiday decorations, John Wagner, Karen Rankin, Carolyn Burnett and Larry Woods pause before the sparkling Christmas tree at the Christmas formal.

Typifying the gay atmosphere at a basketball sock hop are Pat Dougan and Roger Macur.

Harry Reid awaits the cup of punch which Judy Spauldin is carefully serving at the Student Council-sponsored "Crystal Ball".

Studies Are Secondary as Dance Band Swings

Serving punch to Tom Ervin, Ruth Evans assists at the Spring Dance.

While the "Esquires" dance band takes an intermission, Pat Dougan, Tom Ervin, Pat Gimpel, Babs Bower, Harry Reid and Dianna Brown chat at the dance.

Senior John Wagner displays his "bravery" as he receives his Tuberculin test.

The five-hour speech class records school news on Thursdays, and radio station KDLS broadcasts the program Saturday mornings. Eric Wolber records the sports portion of the program.

Speech Activities Promote Variety

Freshman Jane Rausch uses a picture, which she drew, to relate the tale of "The Saggy, Baggy Elephant" to delighted pre-schooler Connie Martin, below.

The activity speech classes chose three girls to record their original scripts to promote the sale of Christmas Seals for fighting tuberculosis. Sylvia Garwood and Susie Wildberger listen as Nancy Hart practices before leaving to record at KSO Radio in Des Moines.

Science Club members are Donna Bennett, Larry Low, Steve Felton, Courtney Goodwin, Eileen Garwood, Barbara Low, Avis Paeth, Dennis Dibbern and Roy Gimpel. Other members are Toni Tripp, Randy Franklin, Bill Jenkins, Tom Schirman and Arnold Fulton.

Add Science, Distributive Education Clubs

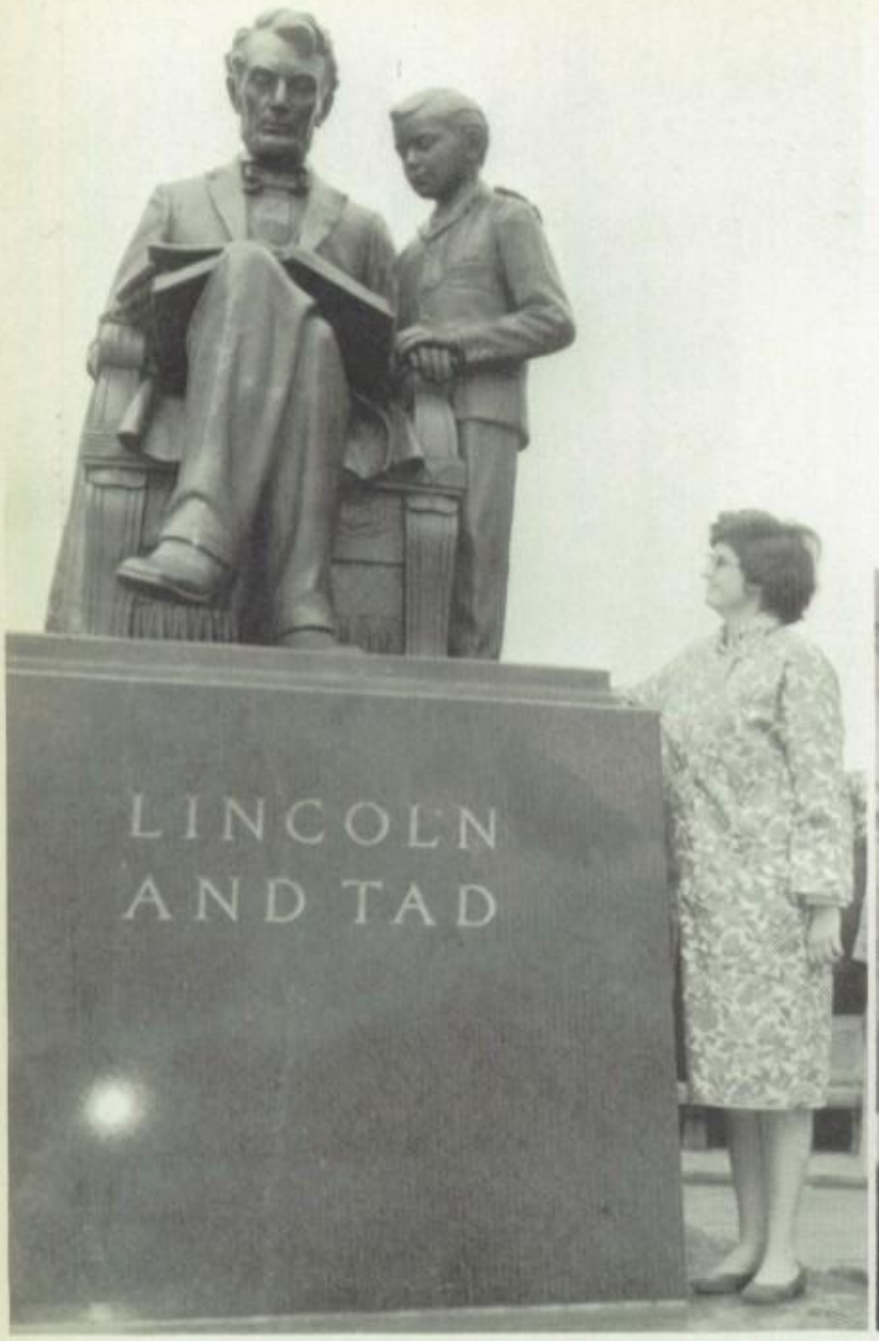
Below: Senior Dan Charter, a member of the advanced science group, is working on his chemical unknowns.

Distributive Education officers for this year were: President, Jon Peters; Secretary, Mary Mason; and Vice-President, Luther Hartman.

School Spotlight as Year



Kathy Dixon, Gary Huss and Gary Yanders admire monuments on the State House grounds during Legislature Day.

Right: Steve Felton and Dennis Brelsford anticipate graduating.

Below: The five seniors who attended the Smarty Party all four years are Larry Low, Roy Gimpel, Carol Marlow, Glory Hansen and Sylvia Garwood.

on Class of '63 Nears End

Dick Whiton and Terry Whisner helped Phyllis Anthens to enjoy the water at Springbrook.

The pictured tractor was a new addition to the teachers' parking lot on "Hobo Day".

A wiener roast climaxed the seniors' picnic and aided hungry swimmers and boaters.

"We hereby claim this lake and surrounding area as property of the Class of 1963."

Oh, well--seniors will be seniors!

Honorary, Monetary Awards to Deserving '63 Seniors

Awarded the $100 Student Council scholarship was Sylvia Garwood. Carol Marlow and Phyllis Anthens received $50 bonds from the Elks, while Carol Marlow also received the Iowa State Bar Association and the Soroptimist Citizenship Awards.

Dennis Brelsford and Susan Pennington were winners of the American Legion Awards. Susan also won the $200 Xi Pi Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Award.

Those presented scholarships from agencies other than local organizations were John Wagner, Iowa State University; Carol Marlow, Register and Tribune; Kathy Dixon, Grandview Junior College; Carolyn Mathis, North Central Bible College; Marvin Lind, Iowa State University. Not pictured is Roger Macur, who was appointed to the United States Air Force Academy.

Recipients of individual scholarships were Avis Paeth, $200 Kiwanis Club scholarship; Janice Hall, $300 Alpha Circle of King's Daughters scholarship; Dennis Leslie, $50 Pollyanna Social Circle scholarship; Roy Gimpel, $300 Rotary Club scholarship; Jan Eshouse, $210 P.T.A. scholarship; and Carolyn Mathis, $75 Am-Non Circle of King's Daughters scholarship.

Co-valedictorians Courtney Goodwin and Marvin Lind shared a cumulative grade point average of 3.971 out of a possible 4.0. Named as the "Top Ten" scholars in the class were Steve Felton, Sylvia Garwood, Roy Gimpel, Courtney Goodwin, Glory Hansen, Marvin Lind, Larry Low, Carol Marlow, Avis Paeth and Carol Schirman.

Out of School Life

- - -Into Life's School

Four seniors spoke on the topic "Our American Heritage". Dennis Brelsford, Avis Paeth, Courtney Goodwin and Roger Macur presented their views on the aspects of freedom, religion, culture and education, respectively.

"The End is but the Beginning"

Lesters, you're a lot of fun — (you and your troubles, that is!)
Hope you make the last band show — we'd all miss you.
